The holiday season is upon us, and the New Year is just around the corner. While many hunters and sportsmen are still reminiscing about the year's hunting and fishing trips, thousands of outdoorsmen are making plans to attend one of the many sporting shows and conventions, while planning future hunting and fishing trips. Several sporting shows start in early January and continue into May and are held in various parts of the country. A few of the major shows include the Dallas Safari Club (DSC), Safari Club International (SCI), Rocky Mountain Elk Foundations (RMEF), Wild Sheep Foundation (WSF), National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTf), Trout Unlimited (TU), Ducks Unlimited (DU) and the National Rifle Association (NRA).

These shows and conventions provide extensive opportunities to visit with exhibitors who travel from all over the world to promote goods and services. You will find hunting and fishing outfitters, many major gun and optics manufacturers, custom rifle and knife makers, taxidermists, as well as get the chance to shop for hunting accessories, clothing, artwork and jewelry. In addition, there are seminars each day covering diverse hunting topics, presented by experts in each field. Other activities include silent auctions, raffles, and luncheons, complete with evening banquets of auctions, guest speakers and live entertainment.

Through memberships, raffles, auctions and donations, funds are raised to promote hunting, wildlife conservation, youth programs and education, gun rights, legislative issues, and to support the lifestyle of hunters, fishermen and outdoor enthusiasts. It's the ideal time to begin planning that trip of a lifetime or handling the new rifle you've been dreaming about. Even if you are unable to attend one of the shows, please consider becoming a member of your favorite organization.

Live Water Agents will attend the following events, including Dallas Safari Club (Terry Fieseler), Safari Club International (Alex Maher, Robb Nelson, Terry Fieseler and Jane Brown), Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation (Terry Fieseler and Robb Nelson), National Rifle Association (Robb Nelson) and Ducks Unlimited (Ryland Moore). Please come see us to discuss the current ranch market and ideal investments for you.
